Il Circo brings Broadway-style show and Las Vegas

"Viaggio" is from 18 to 21 August at the Teresa Carreño with a different concept and colorful staging.

An unprecedented circus, very different in concept to those who until now have occurred in Venezuela, and in which converge the elements of this type of show, with the aesthetics of the Broadway musical, La Vegas and Italian commedia dell'arte, is one that will perform at the Sala José Félix Ribas del Teatro Teresa Carreño, from 18 to 21 August.

These are the characteristics of Il Circo or the U.S. company, from San Diego, California, closely related in form to the famous Cirque du Soleil, but with its own personality, according to what stated in a press conference yesterday, Thomas Francis and Tomás Enrique Medina, Showtime Productions, the company that brings them to our country and will also take to Peru, Ecuador, Colombia, Chile and Argentina.
