The hall Ríos Reyna del Teatro Teresa Carreño will witness during four days of magic Il Circo circus entertainment. From 18 to 21 August, 30 artists will gather to surprise viewers with numbers of Venezuelans "complex" framed by the colorful and the spectacular Carnival of Venice.

It is a surreal journey, Viaggio, whose crew will consist of puppets, acrobats, magicians, clowns and trapeze artists will give life to a history of 13 acts, with a duration of 2 hours 10 minutes.

"This is the first visit by Il Circo Venezuela and South America," said Tomas Enrique Medina, a director of Showtime Productions. "We wanted to do a show in a tent or type Polyhedron of Caracas, but we thought it would overshadow the majesty of the event."

Il Circo, a native of San Francisco company, draws on the techniques of Cirque Du Soleil surprising, since many of its members were part of the circus show from Canada.

The story tells Viaggio, which will have new features, focuses on the adventures of a girl who reaches the magical world of circus. There will encounter characters who guide you through the fantasy world.

Two containers of 40 feet each will be responsible for putting all the instruments that give body to the magical world that will envelop the audience from Thursday 18, double feature at 3:00 and 8:00 pm on Friday 19 with a function at 8:00 pm and Saturday 20 and Sunday 21 with three functions at 11:00 am, 3:00 and 7:00 pm

Tickets range between 180 and 650 Bolivars. They are on sale at the theater box office, by www.ticketmundo.com and www.showtime.com.ve
