El Teatro Nazas looked at full capacity in the two functions that were offered, and although the delay to start lasted about an hour in the first show, attendees were amazed at the spectacle offered.

The first act of the event, organized by the state government, opened the curtains just before 17:00 pm, the children who attended from various primary schools in Torreón, I waited with neon lights that stood in the darkness that was in campus.

A girl with balloons and accompanied by her parents, was lit in the audience, then took the stage, the show had begun.

The little girl ran into several members of a circus, fun, far from causing shame. She suddenly found a music box and appeared to open a toy clown, so was behind it but in size, the clown out of the box and began to transform the obscure members of the circus and full of animated characters life.

The show less than two hours had all the characteristic of a circus: clowns, acrobats, contortionists, jugglers and countless more acts that captured the attention of children Harriers from the beginning to the end.

A great set of lights, magnificent scenery and colorful costumes were the ideal complement to that fantasy come true on stage.

Viaggio not offer the same spectacle of the circus tent, but the show is specially prepared to be theaters.

It should be noted that most members of the company have participated in shows for the renowned Cirque du Soleil

Thus, toddlers Harriers were ahead of the date that morning and throughout the week of Joy will celebrate in style with fun activities, along with one other adult who still meets with the saying "everyone has a child within", " not?
