Il Circo The company first introduced in Venezuela and South America with her show yesterday Viaggio. Through Sunday you can attend the Teresa Carreno Theater to see the story of a girl lost in a carnival, played by Sasha Pivaral, acting in the circus world since the age of three. "The characters are introduced in the world. During the trip, she learned and familiar, to become one of them," said Amy Gale, general producer. Il Circo features 30 artists from different countries including Nelson Pivaral, Mexican. "To enter a show like this you need a competitive level. For Sasha, the age of eight, then five in the circus, became the central figure. It takes hard work. We see as a professional sport, because it involves discipline, diet and exercise," he said. The roles continue today at 8:00 pm. Tomorrow and Sunday will be at 11:00 am, 3:00 pm and 7:00 pm. It is not the Cirque du Soleil Although some of its members, including its director, Sam Trego, from Cirque du Soleil, the show has a plot of its own. "We have original music, is a concept that is handled in the last 10 or 15 years. There are some differences compared to the Cirque du Soleil. This type of show is set up for families and is not a show that depends on technology -that makes us different. Il Circo is not based on the technology side, but on talent," said Gael. Selection of the cast Gael revealed to be the cast of Il Circo rigorously evaluates each participant. "The artists and acts are selected through an audition and an evaluation in the emotional aspect. Then decides who will play each role, adjusted to their abilities. They are required to arrive on time, they are cheerful and who are passionate about what they do," he said.
