The journey began. Teresa Carreño Theater yesterday received Il Circo artists in their first appearances in the country, and then continue his tour of South America. Fantasy Viaggio theater is characterized by excellent execution of its artists, original music, creative lighting and technical resources used in props. Reyna Rios Ward saw the elasticity of the artists. They are so malleable that look like rubber and not of flesh and bones. Acrobats, magicians, trapeze artists, clowns, contortionists and other circus acts highlighted throughout the staging and astounded the public. THE VIAGGIO Aggie Aggie Little discovers the circus hands of their parents. A giant puppet welcomes the child to the magical space of L "oltretomba. It is a world where people become what you think. Go back, sing, dance on stage seems colored with the most vivid hues. She is amazed by the work of the circus, but she has great talent as well. Throughout the show, the girl has her face looked surprised and artists keep their smiles. The Aggies travel over, but back home his learning at the circus will keep forever. "It's relations with the people you meet along the journey of life, it becomes more amazing when you learn for yourself, as well as those who need and to help you grow inside. In this case, they make Aggie experience their own transformation, after his having lived with such amazing people," described the show's director and choreographer Amy Gale. Is an extraordinary staging on the aesthetics of Italian art, there are 13 acts with an intermission that provide a total duration of 2 hours, 10 minutes. The show consists of 30 artists from different countries and six international technical quality.
